Welcome to myAppeal.

As part of a continuous effort to provide increased accessibility, improved support, and timely due process for California's employers, unemployed, and disabled workers seeking to appeal their benefit or payroll tax determinations made by the Employment Development Department (EDD), the California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board (CUIAB) has implemented a secured online public portal.

In order to create and register an account on the CUIAB public portal, you must have an active appeal and case number. Once you have filed an appeal with the EDD, the CUIAB will send an Appeal Acknowledgement and Welcome Letter, which notifies parties that the CUIAB has received the appeal and provides information necessary to create and register for a myAppeal account.

Please be advised that while the online public portal has been made available, only parties with active appeals assigned to the Fresno and Oxnard Offices of Appeals will be eligible to create a myAppeal account. Additional CUIAB offices will be added throughout the remainder of 2022. For appeals assigned to other CUIAB offices, parties must continue contacting the CUIAB to obtain information regarding their appeal. Click on Contact Us, located at the top-right of this page for the latest contact information for each of CUIAB's respective offices.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Please read through the entire Terms and Conditions before proceeding. Please note that fields marked with (*) are mandatory.

CUIAB is created by the Legislature in 1943, the California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board (CUIAB) is an independent administrative court system for workers and employers seeking to challenge decisions made by the Employment Development Department (EDD). Appeals are the first opportunity for all parties to present evidence and tell their side of the story before an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) and have that ALJ decide the case. The ALJ's decision may be appealed to a five-member Board appointed by the Governor and the Legislature. The Board's decision is final, unless overturned by the California Superior Court. If a party appeals, EDD's original decision is reviewed by an ALJ. The ALJ can overturn, agree with, or modify EDD's decision. The losing party can appeal the ALJ's decision to CUIAB's five-member Board, appointed by the Governor and Legislature. California is one of 47 states to offer this second level of review. The Board's decision is CUIAB's final decision. Workers and employers who disagree with CUIAB's final decision may appeal to the California Superior Court system, which is outside of CUIAB.

CUIAB's services are free to the participants, and do not require an attorney. The proceedings are funded almost completely by federal dollars (93%), with state special funds paying for costs related to disability and paid family leave cases (6.6%), and the state General Fund paying for less than one-half of one percent (0.4%) of the costs.
